Welcome to DCR’s
Joseph Allen Skinner State Park

Once the home of a prestigious hotel, Skinner State Park offers outstanding views of the Connecticut Valley and is primarily used for hiking, public programs, and scenic viewing. It is part of the Massachusetts state park system and is managed by the Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR), an agency of the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs.

DCR oversees 400,000 acres of parks, forests, beaches, bike trails, waterways, and more. Its mission is to protect, preserve, and enhance the state’s natural, cultural, and recreational resources. To learn more about DCR and its services, visit www.mass.gov/dcr.
