Part 3: The whole package: Writing your personal/research statements and cover letter

Wednesday, November 12, 6:30-8:30pm McConnell 404

Applying for graduate school this year or thinking of options for the future? Faculty and students will discuss relevant issues for STEM students in this discussion/workshop series.

In Part 3 of the 4-part workshop series we will:

- Discuss writing personal statements and research statements
- Discuss writing cover letters
- Develop your own writing in the workshop

Bring your laptop and documents in progress to work on them and get feedback

No RSVP needed but if you let aanacker@smith.edu know what field you are going into, we can try to ensure an expert from your area will be present.
